COMMENTS

Alberi and Sandra.... This place is privileged and has an exuberant nature but best of all is the people, sympathetic and friendly, finally a place where all is good.

Babett, Mathias, Jacotte, Collete et J.Evans ... Travelling in RN we are very happy to have been able to find in São Miguel do Gostoso a pousada of this quality. In the setting of this fishing village it is a place at the same time lively as peaceful, and the location of Chantilly Pousada on the beachfront, is excellent. In addition to the comfort of the chalets and quality of the breakfast it was above all the polite and warm welcome of Fabio and Michelle that touched us. Another reason to want to come back again one day to São Miguel do Gostoso. A big thank you for all.
